

Date: July 12, 1982

Author: Jim Gordon

Category: Channeling

Jim Gordon 7/12/82

That divine spark that you must give to the world. You have learned over the years to let go of the lower / ^{and look} to the higher for guidance, for love and for support. And as you turn to the higher you will find that ^{at times} battles between the lower and the higher coming before you. Do not clash and fight the lower but rather learn to release it. Allow it to know that you are no threat to it, but rather you wish to control it only for the good of yourself and humanity.

At this time throughout the world there is a need for light as never before. As you look around the world today there is much darkness clashing with the light. It is up to each of you here to go forth and work with individuals to help them see the light more clearly so that they can begin to walk the path upward as well. In this way the darkness shall be lighted up and will be no more. This foundation was meant to be a way, a pathway, for the light to flow unto the many who are searching. As we have shared in the past, mankind must have a balance of the physical, the emotional and the mental bodies in order for the spiritual to be truly manifest and shared.

This has been one of the greatest challenges for spirit. For as spirit reaches down unto the physical bodies trying to pull the soul back upward again, these different vehicles in the lower realms tend to block the pathway upward in growing into the light. It is very important to realize that balance is essential for growth. The foundation need is mainly to help balance these three lower vehicles so the soul will have a clear path homeward into the light into its Christhood.

This foundation exists not because you want it to exist but because there is a necessity. If there was not a need we would not be working with you at this time. You will have to give up much on an individual level. You will have to give up much of the personality and sacrifice in order to do the work we wish you to do. This is your choice and this is your decision. We offer an opportunity to grow in spirit through service. It is up to each of you to open up and make yourself available to that path. In the giving up of the lower of the things that seem important here, the higher shall come to be available to you. So be aware of the growth within, learn to be sensitive to the light as it begins to shine and open your hearts and know that light. Experience and share it... More than that we cannot ask. In this sharing can be done in several ways. It will be up to each of you to find that path of sharing for yourselves and for the foundation. Just as a diamond is not perfect unless all of the facets are in proper place so the organization will not be perfect until each of you find your proper place in the flow of energy of the light which shines forth from within.

^{as} As the group comes together more and more and those that are meant to be part of the foundation have gone through it, the diamond becomes more complete and as that diamond becomes more complete, the radiance and brilliance of this foundation shall shine ever brighter but it will be up to each of you to find your place that will be a whole. The whole of the flame with sparks coming together as one manifesting a brilliant light to the world. This organization is not the only^{one} to do this, and there are others as well seeking to serve in their own way. But together each of you and together the foundations throughout the world shall manifest this light into the world and help to upgrade and change the evolutionary process as never before if we are able to succeed. That success depends upon each of you here as it does upon each member of each foundation and spiritual organizations throughout the world. It is a big responsibility we would not have given to you if you were not ready. At times you may feel fearful and want to step back and say, "Why me? Why am I in this position? I am not ready for this type of service." All we can ask is do not question but learn to respond again and learn to go out and do what the inner voice dictates and you shall find the reason why in this service.

7/12/82

We have tried many times in many different periods to bring about this type of flow of energy. At times it has been more successful than others, but now the time is here and now the time is right for humanity to grow upward into the path of light than ever before. This is why each of you have been drawn together as one and through that oneness hopefully in time all of humanity shall become one.

Our love is with you, our light is with you. Whenever you feel in darkness turn to the light, turn toward the love that is within your heart and mind and know we are there. Never walk in fear, always walk in light and you shall know success as never before both on a personal level and a group level. Join your hearts, join your minds and join your souls as one and let the Christ within you come forth into the group identity and group effort for it is through the group effort with the Christ identity that the light truly will manifest into the world. Set your personality aside and know the I am that I am, for I am ever with you. I am ever now. I AM THAT I AM! So let it be, I am

Brethren of universal minds, Comte de St. Germaine. I come to you in greetings and hoping that you will join with me in the blessing of light that flows down from above at this time. Praise be to all that is. Praise be unto the light that is that you manifest that light into the world and know that I am with you in you.

As you have heard it is very important for you to come together as a group to manifest this light into the world. Visualize the violet flame of purification both around yourself and around the group today and evermore so that purification can come forth to cleanse the body, mind and soul. In this way you may manifest that light in this world properly and purify. Try never to allow the personality to express in this manifestation of light into the world. For only then the ego will manifest and not the light of God. By manifesting the light of the pure flame, the violet flame of light and purification, you shall always set aside the personality and ego and allow only that Christlike from within to manifest. So rise up in purification in the light. Rise up in the flame of purity. Let the violet light surround you now and forevermore and manifest that purification light within. Become one, become whole. Become the light of God that is and know the I am presence within. Become one with the I am presence within and manifest that I am presence within and to all that seek, unto all that wish to know and let them experience that light for themselves through you and within man.

I am that I am. Know that I am. It is important that each of you become aware of this more daily. The only pathway into the light is the I am presence through prayer and meditation. Meditation is the pathway into the light. Knowledge from books, knowledge from lectures -- all the knowledge in the world is important, but it is not the pathway within. The only pathway to that light is the pathway through meditation. So go within daily and know the light - become the light. Be the light. That is the only way. There is no other. Until that day you seek out the light and become, you are only expressing the outer personality. True maybe the spirit flows somewhat through you and manifests some way through the personality level, but until you have gone through the pathway of light the spirit does not flow directly to humanity as it should.

This is the challenge unto each of you for your own personal growth spiritually as well as if you wish to help humanity, you must do it for that level as well. Growth in the light to become. Know that I am. I cannot express more unto you until you have done that for that is the most important thing in your life at this time. To become a channel of that light - become a channel of the spirit. The Holy Spirit in his flame is ever close. All you have to do is look within to find it. To open your heart, to open your mind, to open your soul and to allow that light to come forth.

You have expressed^{4t} in the past in lives beyond, you shall express it again in the future in lives to come. Express it now and be, and know that the past, the present and the future are one and that you are the Holy Spirit manifestation if you will only allow it to be.

I am that I am. Become the I am now. Become the I am now. Become the I am now. That is all that you should be. The I am now. I go in peace my brethren and I leave my peace and my light unto you. Use the violet flame of purification daily and know the I am that I am.

7/12/82

We bring to you at this time a blessing of the Holy Spirit. As it begins to fill this room and move among each of you experience the light within and become one with it. Know the eternal presence. Experience the baptism once again of the light and the spirit of God. For truly this is the breath of God that gives us our light, the spiritual light that is within. As it moves among this room, among each of you, experience that light within and ^{become one} with it. We call forth at this time the light of God within to come forth and manifest. We call forth at this time the blessing of the Holy Spirit of God and holy breath within. Come forth and manifest in each of us. Come forth and bless each of us and let us become one you and express it unto all in light and truth and spirit. Oh Holy Spirit, fill each of our hearts, fill each of our minds, fill each of our souls with thy light and thy breath. Cleanse and purify our beings so that we may be of more service unto the Godhead within, unto to the Christ within. May we become one with those identities. May we lose sight of our own personalities and become one with the Holy Spirit.

(Voice of the Holy Spirit)

The blessings of light are upon you and now and forevermore. Open up thy heart and thy mind. I am there with you ever. Become one with my light and my breath and I shall give you the light of God. Become one, become one. Open up and become one.
